Recording – Updated - You are welcome to record the sessions provided that it's for your own personal and educational use (including use with friends in tape groups for example). Permission to record does not however extend to distribution of the recordings to others outside this group. If you do want to record, you'll need to ask me to authorize it via Zoom during the session or, alternatively, in advance by email (which would be better for me). Incidentally I've authorized Keith Rubow to make available on his usual web site any audio recordings he makes of my sessions so that attendees and others can obtain copies via Keith.

Donations: Any participants wishing to make a small donation can do so via PayPal using my email address (pace@collingwoods.org) but do not feel under obligation to donate. From my standpoint, your interest in continuing to participate is in itself an expression of your appreciation. Incidentally I now have a TransferWise account so donations can be made that way or via PayPal.

Contact Tony Collingwood (pace@collingwoods.org) to be placed on the mailing list for these dances. Please give your full name and email address.
